VET COURSE GUIDE

Why Collarts?

Collarts (Australian College of the Arts) is a dynamic, independent dual-sector college offering both Higher Education and Vocational Education and Training (VET) programs. With a strong focus on real-world experience and industry connections, we prepare students for thriving careers in the creative industries.

For over 30 years, Collarts has delivered nationally accredited Certificates and Diplomas, as well as Bachelor and Postgraduate degrees across design, entertainment, communication, and the performing arts.

We take creativity seriously. Students learn from expert educators who are active industry professionals and gain access to cutting-edge facilities in a supportive and welcoming environment. Ranked #1 in Quality of Educational Experience among all private tertiary institutions in Australia, Collarts offers a learning experience that is both inspiring and practical.

Small class sizes and personalised support ensure real connections with staff and peers, with countless opportunities for hands-on experience, collaboration, and career-relevant learning.

Flexible study options allow students to shape their learning journey—whether through in-person study at our Melbourne campuses, online or hybrid delivery, or through partnerships with secondary schools across Australia offering VET in Schools programs. Whether you're a school-leaver, an international student, a working creative looking to upskill, or a secondary student starting your pathway early, Collarts has a study option to suit your lifestyle.

Collarts is more than a college; it's a creative community. Students from all backgrounds and disciplines are encouraged to collaborate across courses, explore new ideas, and build lifelong industry connections before they graduate.

Join a like-minded network of creatives who are passionate, driven, and ready to support each other's success.
