

RESPECT WEEK

@ COLLARTS

MARCH 24 - 28

Respect is when we treat people equally, support their feelings, rights and freedom of choice, and value their unique differences. Collarts is committed to creating a positive, safe, respectful and inclusive environment for students, staff and other members of the community.

RESPECT WEEK RESOURCES

Collarts is here to support you if you feel you have experienced sexual harassment or gender-based violence at the College or in the community. Your safety at Collarts is our priority. Respect and Safety @ Collarts has further information about gender-based violence, our policy, and external resources for affected community members.

We all have a role to play in making Collarts a safe space. Part of that is understanding people's boundaries, learning to respect each other and being able to recognise unacceptable behaviour. Consent Matters is an online course to help you recognise consent, develop communication skills, navigate relationships and by an active community member with tools to intervene against harassment, or bullying.

Collarts is committed to promoting the safety and wellbeing of trans and gender diverse (TGD) students and staff. Gender affirmation is challenging for people, especially whilst navigating transition into higher education or into a new institution. Collarts welcomes TGD community members and wants to improve their experience during their tertiary education time and in their future careers.
