About the Graduate Diploma

The Graduate Diploma of Creative Industries is a postgraduate coursework degree for emerging and established creatives seeking to deepen their practice and expand their impact.

Blending theoretical exploration with hands-on practical work, the course builds advanced skills, industry awareness and professional confidence.

You'll select a specialisation and develop a self-directed creative project supported by a robust research framework, with guidance from experienced educators and industry professionals.

With a focus on professional practice, collaboration and entrepreneurial thinking, the course prepares you to position your work within industry and contribute meaningfully to Australia's creative economy.

Accelerated option

The Graduate Diploma of Creative Industries can be completed in an accelerated full-time mode over two trimesters. This intensive pathway is designed for motivated creatives seeking to advance their practice quickly while maintaining academic rigour.

Specialise your creative practice. Make work that matters.

Bring your comedy ideas to life through this hands-on, industry-led project. You'll write, pitch, develop and refine work across live performance, screen and audio formats.

Guided by experienced Collarts educators and industry mentors, you'll have the option to write and produce a live show; turn a script into a pitch-ready series; develop sketches into a full-length show; or record and market a unique podcast concept.

Graduate with a polished, high-end production and cohesive body of work, ready to showcase and advance your creative practice within the comedy and wider creative industries.
